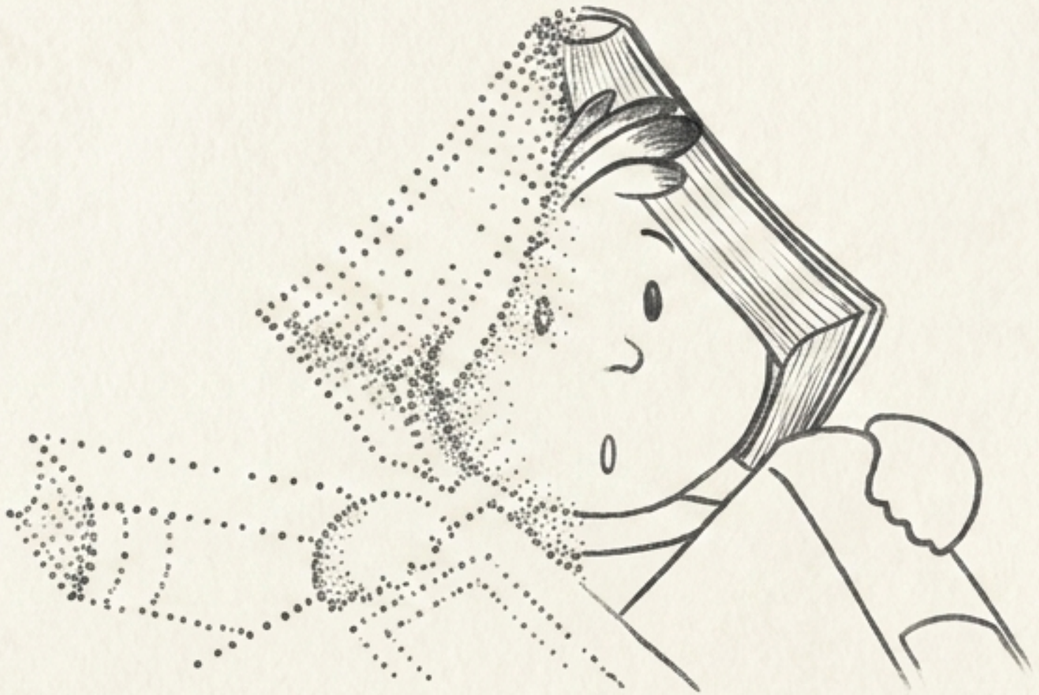
Lost and Found: A Mystery Sketchbook



You are the detective.
You are the artist.
A precious item has been lost. Reconstruct the search by connecting the dots to reveal the scenes. There are no numbers to guide you, and no paths to follow. You must rely on your spatial reasoning, eye for proportion, and the small color reference key on each page to piece together the story. Grab a pen. Begin the search.

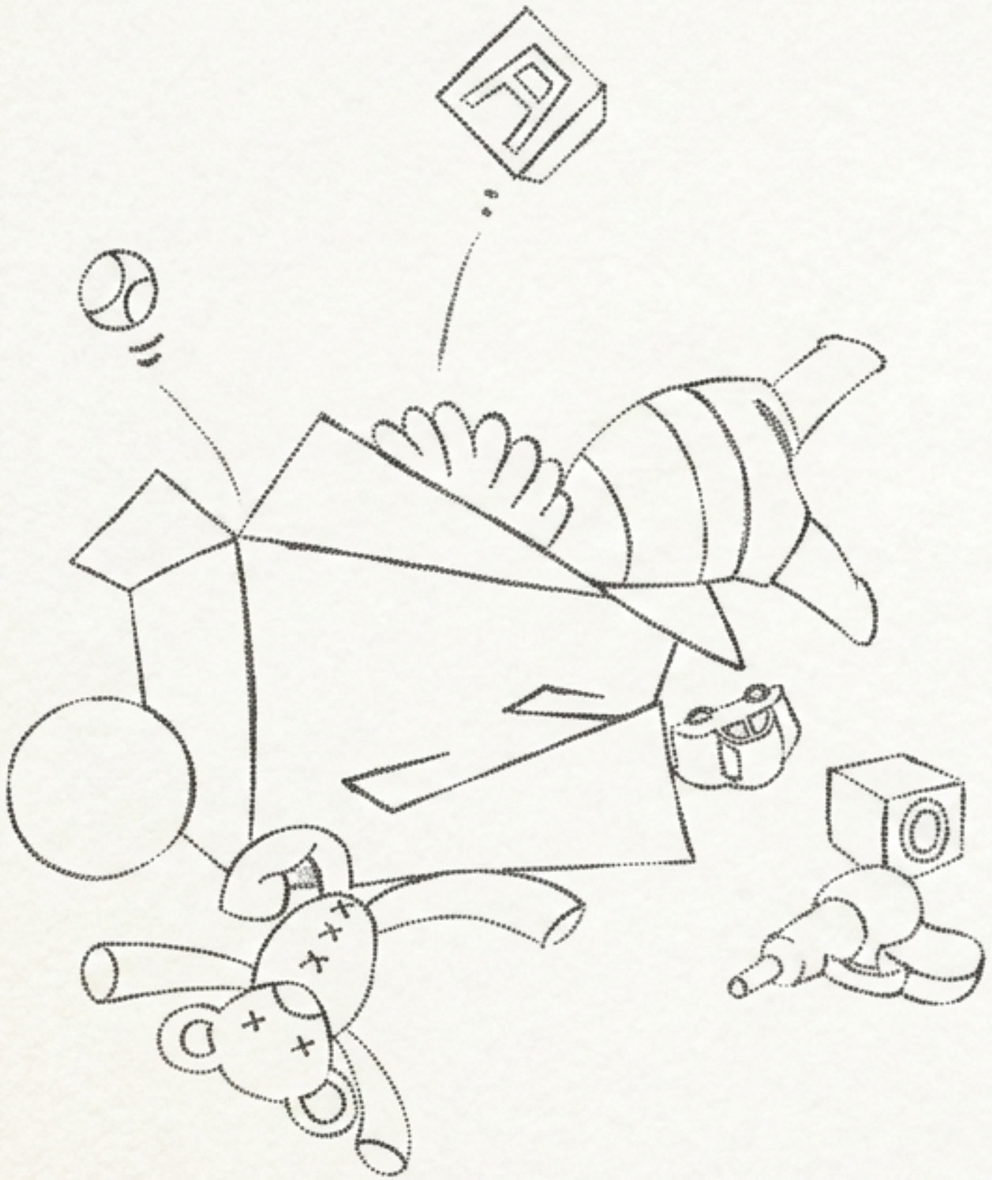
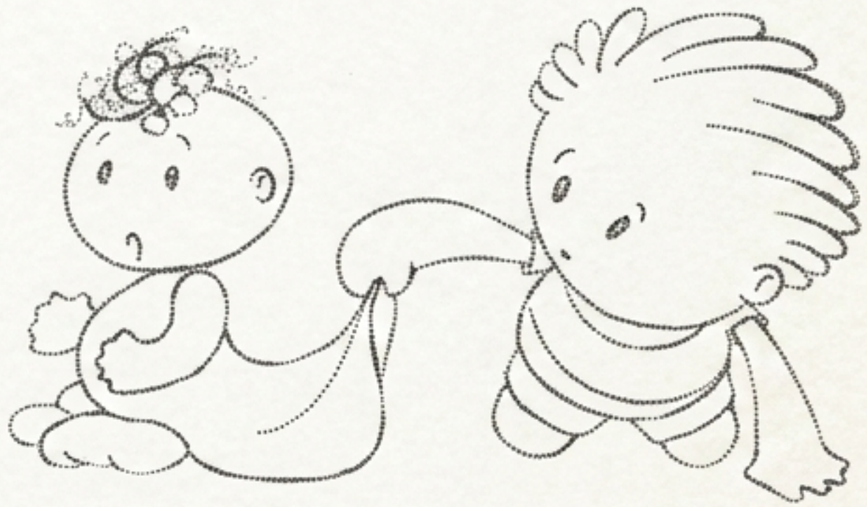
Not here, not there. Where have you gone?

NotebookLM

Not on the sofa. Not under the cot.

NotebookLM



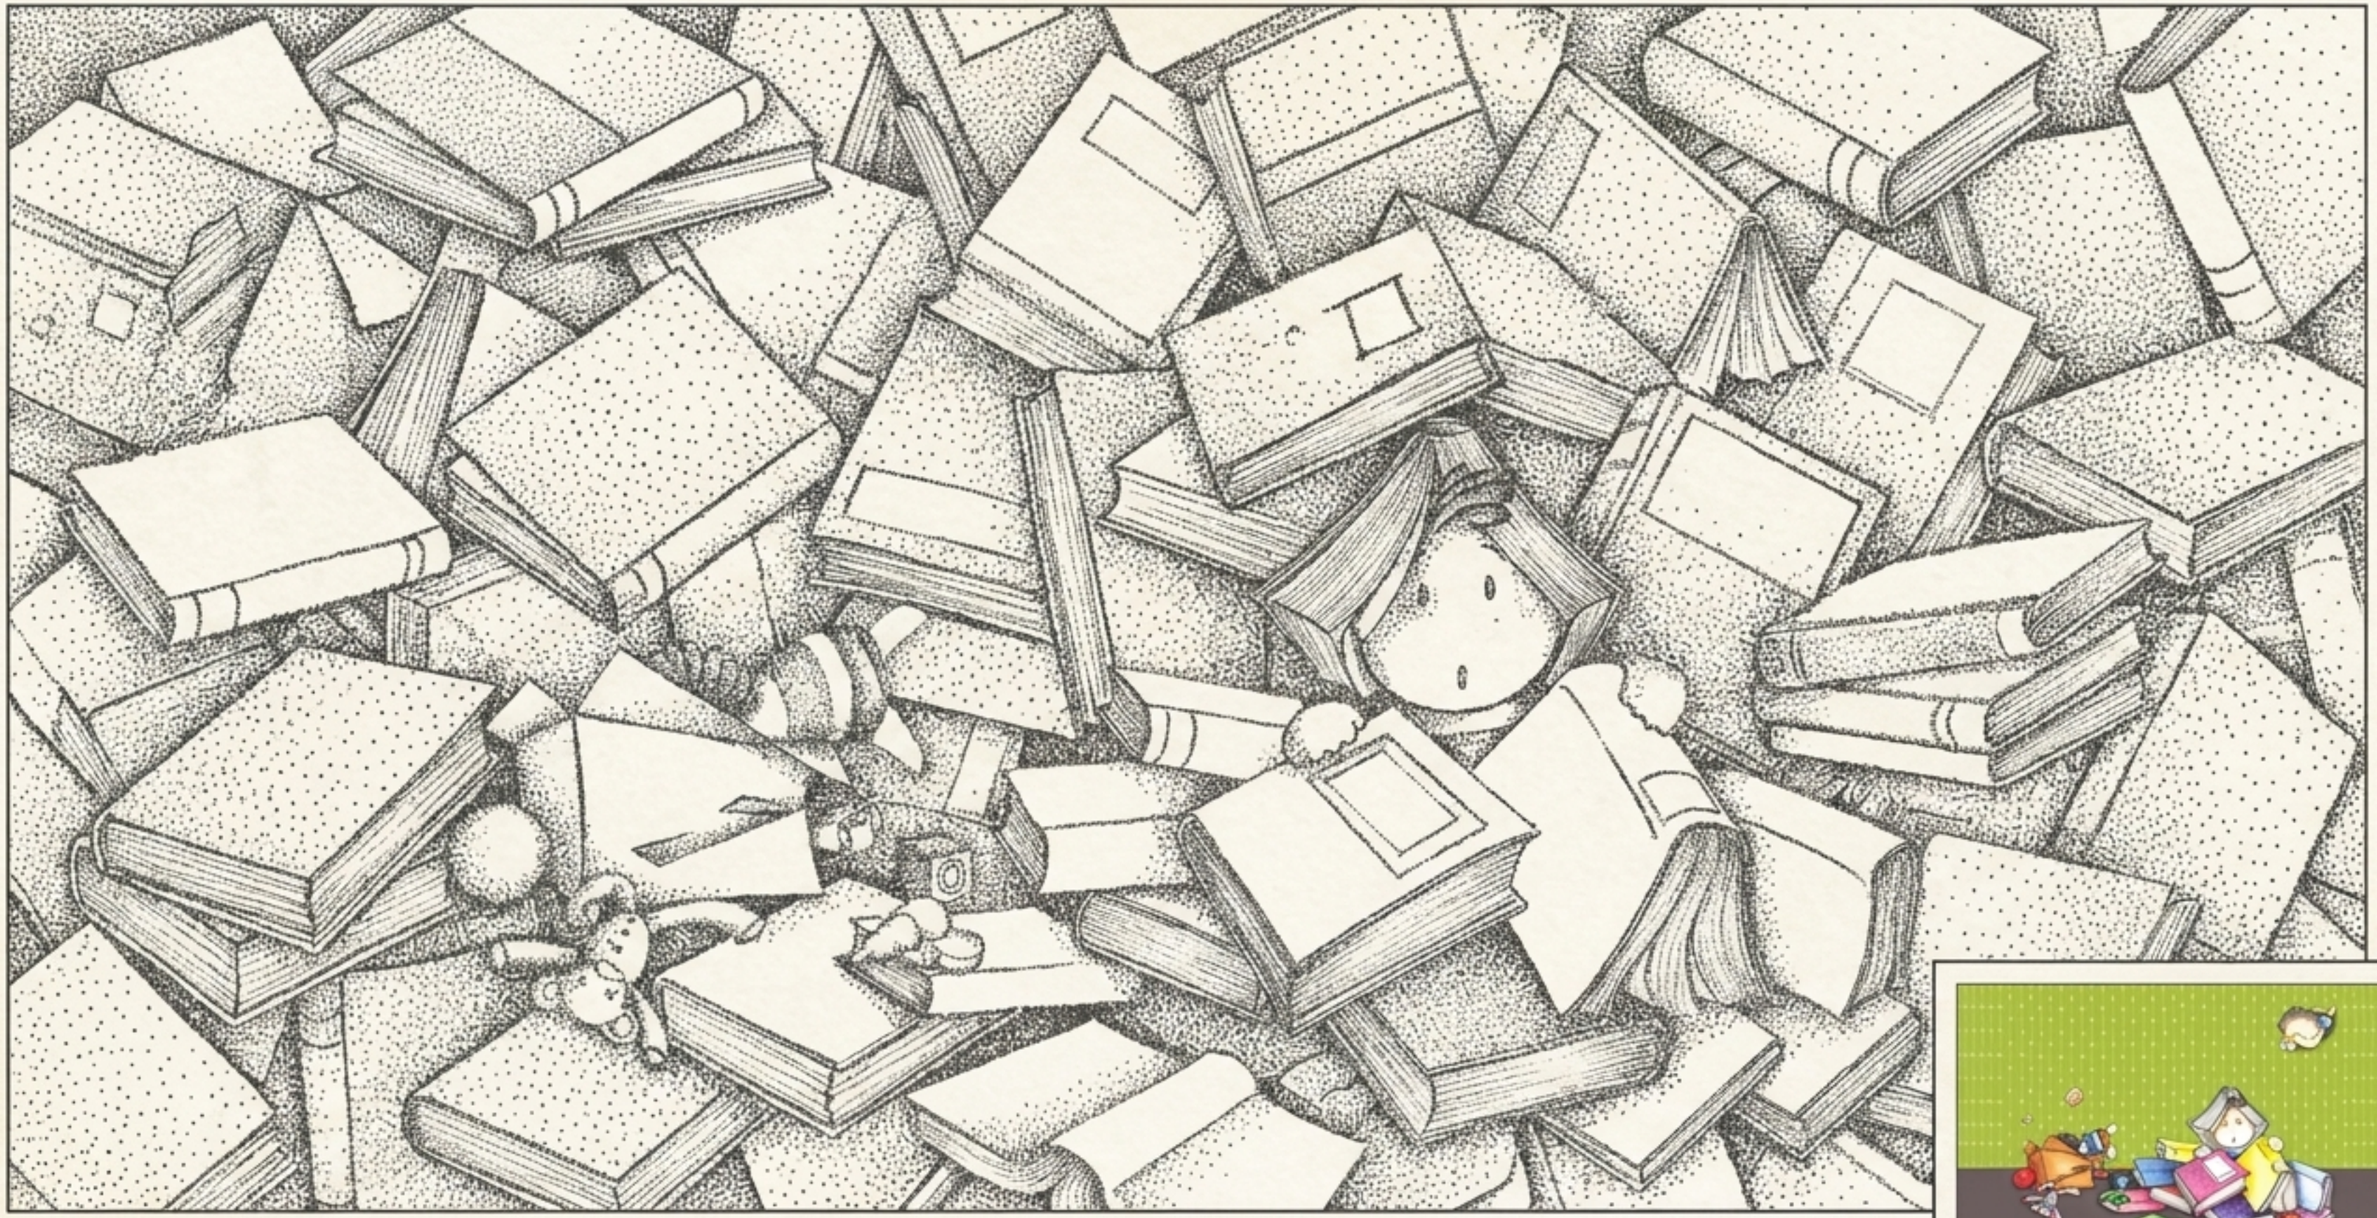


Not in the box. Not under my sister's frock.

NotebookLM

Not under the pillow. Not in my bag. Sob, sob, where have you gone?

NotebookLM



I have looked in every room, I have looked under every book.

NotebookLM

I have looked under the chair, I have looked under the stool. Where have you gone?

NotebookLM

Soon granny came back from her walk. “Look what I found in the park.”

NotebookLM

"It can sway, it can bounce. It can spin, it can dangle. Ha-ha, hee-hee," said Granny with a giggle

NotebookLM

Oh Granny! Thank you so much! You have found my dear yo-yo!

NotebookLM

‘Yo-yo? What a funny name! What a funny toy! I want to play with it, It gives me so much joy!’

NotebookLM

Giggle, giggle, giggling away, Granny played, with my little toy. For the rest of the day!
